Anya Gruener '24, Silver Knight Award Nominee, Student Body President, RaiderVoice Managing Editor, Coca-Cola Scholar - Stanford University '28

"As a lifer at Gulliver, I truly believe that the Raider community has enabled me to thrive in all senses. I have been granted the environment and the resources to explore my passions and interests through electives and extracurricular activities. The exceptional teachers that I have been fortunate to have had pushed me academically to become the best student I can be."

Cosme Salas '24, Three-Time Soccer State Champion and Two-Time Miami Herald Player of the Year, Multi-Sport Athlete, IB Student - Duke University '28

"Being a student-athlete at Gulliver Prep pushed me to pursue my individual passions by showing me that anything is possible and that I am not alone in this process. In my teams, I've found supportive friends and coaches that push me to reach my full potential. Being a student in an environment like this, where I am constantly being offered new potential passions and interests, is something that I would not trade for the world."
